g) "Affected" shall refer to an employee whose position has been eliminated, has opted to bump, has been bumped, or laid-off. "Upward" shall mean to a position that is a pay range higher than the position the employee currently holds but not higher than the position the employee held prior to being affected. "Laterally" Shall mean a position with a pay range that is equal to the pay range of the employee's current position.

Positions that become open due to employees' moving to a restored position shall be offered to employees by seniority that have been affected, provided the employee is qualified for the position. The aforementioned filling of positions shall be referred to as "reverse recall". Affected employees may only reverse recall to the highest position the employee held prior to being affected and may only reverse recall to a lateral or upward position. An employee exercising his/her reverse recall rights shall adhere to section 9.4.3 d, e, f, h.

For laid-off employees, the Employer shall notify the Union and the employee eligible to be recalled of the job opening, and a notice by certified mail will be sent to the employee's last known address. If the employee fails to report for work or to otherwise respond within one week of receipt of notice, or if the letter is returned undeliverable, the employee shall forfeit call-back rights and be removed from the list

k) Employees that suffer a loss of hours due to the Employer reducing the positions hours are provided all of the rights and benefits as provided for in this Article.

m) When employees have the same seniority date, ties shall be decided by the employees' continuous length of service in the Work Group. Should there still be a tie it shall be decided by the employees' continuous length of service in the Department. Should there still be a tie it shall be decided by the employees' continuous length of service with the Employer. Should there still be a tie, the tie shall be broken by a coin flip of the Director, witnessed by the Union and the affected employees.

n) The employees right of recall shall expire after eighteen (18) months; and

o) While on layoff status it shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer apprised of his or her current mailing address; and

10 EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE

10.1 Just Cause

10.1.1 All disciplinary action, including suspension and termination, taken against an employee shall only be for just cause, provided, however, this provision shall not apply to new hire probationary employees, whose employment is strictly “at will.”

10.1.2 Just Cause shall be defined as defined in the case Enterprise Wire Co. and Enterprise Independent Union, March 28, 1966, 46 LA 359.

10.2 Types of Discipline

10.2.1 Nothing within this provision shall be construed to limit the Employer’s ability to impose administrative leave as a precursor to possible disciplinary action. Listed, but without limitation, the forms of discipline shall generally include the following:

10.2.2 Oral Warning. This type of discipline should generally be used for infractions of relatively minor degree. The Employer and/or designee should endeavor to inform the employee, in private, that it is an oral warning, and that the employee is being given an opportunity to correct the condition. If the condition is not corrected, the employee may be subject to more severe disciplinary measures.

10.2.3 Written Warning. This notice will generally be issued by the Employer and/or designee in the event the employee disregards an oral warning or if the infraction is severe enough to warrant a written record in the employee's personnel file. The Employer will set forth in the notice the nature of the infraction.

10.2.4 Demotion. This form of discipline is generally administered when the employee's actions or inaction's have continued or recurred after being advised of misconduct, or failure, or after commission of a serious act of misconduct or when unable to adequately perform the responsibilities of the position held.

10.2.5 Suspension. This form of discipline is generally administered as a result of a violation after the employee has received a written warning and has not adequately improved or corrected performance, or after commission of a serious act of misconduct. The Employer shall inform the employee in writing of the disciplinary action. The original signed copy of the disciplinary action notice is to be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy provided to the employee.

10.2.6 Discharge. If in the opinion of the Employer, the infraction(s) is (are) so severe as to necessitate immediate termination, the Employer and/or designee should take action by placing the employee on suspension without pay until circumstances are reviewed prior to final action. A predetermination hearing in which the employee is advised of the basis for discharge shall occur prior to a termination.

10.3 Investigations

10.3.1 Employees have an obligation to cooperate with any investigation conducted by the Employer. Failure to do so will be considered insubordination and will be grounds for discipline, up to and including termination.

10.3.2 Whenever an employee is being interviewed by the Employer in circumstances that may lead to disciplinary action against the employee, the employee will be advised prior to the start of the interview of the subject of the interview and the right to have Union representation at the interview.

10.3.3 Employees are entitled, at their option, to have Union representation during any investigatory interview conducted by Employer that the employee reasonably believes may result in discipline of the employee. During any such investigatory interview, a participating Union representative will be given the opportunity to ask questions, offer additional information and counsel the employee, but may not obstruct the Employer's investigation.

10.3.4 The Employer may, at its discretion, place employees on paid administrative leave during disciplinary investigations. Employees on such paid administrative leave must remain available during their normal hours of work. Paid administrative leave is not considered to be discipline and is not subject to the grievance procedure.

10.3.5 Any interview and questioning of an employee shall be conducted during the employee's shift unless the urgency of the matter dictates otherwise.

10.3.6 At the time of completion of the investigation of a non-criminal, possible disciplinary matter, the Employer shall notify the employee in writing of such completion as soon as reasonably possible.

10.3.7 No employee shall be required to take or be subjected to polygraph testing as a condition of continued employment.

10.3.8 Except as required by state or federal law, no employee shall be required to take or be subjected to random drug or alcohol testing as a condition of continued employment.

10.4 Appeals of Discipline

10.4.1 Employees (other than probationary employees) may appeal a disciplinary action other than an oral warning through the grievance procedure as provided in this section.

a) Any disciplinary action except for oral warnings may be appealed through Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

b) Disciplinary demotions, suspensions and terminations may be appealed to Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

10.4.2 In the event that a written warning or other discipline (other than an oral warning), an employee may not appeal to Step 3 of the grievance procedure. If the discipline is used as a basis for a subsequent demotion, suspension or termination, the employee may challenge the written warning or other discipline in a subsequent grievance arbitration, provided that the employee appealed the original discipline through Step 2 of the grievance procedure, and did not accept an adjustment of the discipline as a result of that appeal.

11 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11.1 Purpose and Scope

11.1.1 For purposes of this article, a grievance is defined as a dispute or complaint arising under and during the term of this Agreement, raised by an employee or the Union, involving an alleged misapplication or misinterpretation of an express provision of this Agreement. This procedure shall also apply to any dispute requiring a determination of an alleged overpayment or underpayment of wages. This grievance procedure shall be the exclusive means for resolving such grievances.

11.2 Time Limits

11.2.1 Time limits within the grievance procedure may be waived or extended by the mutual agreement of both parties. If the Union, on behalf of the employee, fails to act or respond within the specified time limits, the grievance will be considered waived. If the Employer fails to respond within the specified time limits, the grievance shall proceed to the next available step of the grievance procedure.

11.3 Processing Steps

11.3.1 Step One. The Union, on behalf of the aggrieved employee, shall submit the grievance in writing to the Department Head within fourteen (14) calendar days of the events giving rise to the grievance. The written statement shall include the facts giving rise to the grievance, the section(s) of the Agreement allegedly violated, and the remedy sought. The Department Head shall respond to the grievance in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days of its receipt.

11.3.2 Step Two. Should Step One fail to resolve the grievance, the Union shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the Department Head's response, submit the grievance in writing to the Board of County Commissioners or designee. The Board of County Commissioners or designee, shall respond in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days following receipt of the Union's grievance.

11.3.3 Step Three. Should Step Two fail to resolve the grievance, the Union shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Union's receipt of the Board of County Commissioners or designee's decision, give written notice to the Employer of its intent to submit the grievance to arbitration.

11.4 Arbitration

11.4.1 Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Employer's receipt of the Union's request to arbitrate, a representative of the Union and a representative of the Employer shall meet and attempt to agree on a neutral arbitrator. If unable to reach agreement, they shall request a list of eleven (11) arbitrators from the Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC"). The list shall be limited to arbitrators who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators from the nearest sub-region.

11.4.2 Within fourteen (14) calendar days following the receipt of the list of eligible arbitrators, the parties or their representatives shall meet to select an arbitrator. The parties shall each strike five arbitrators from the list in an alternating order, and the remaining arbitrator shall hear the dispute. The party exercising the first strike shall be the loser of a flip of a coin.

11.4.3 The arbitrator shall have no power to render a decision that will add to, subtract from, alter, change, or modify the terms of this Agreement, and his or her power shall be limited to interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement. All other matters shall be excluded from arbitration.

11.4.4 The arbitrator shall rule only on the basis of information presented in the hearing and shall refuse to receive any information after the hearing except in the presence of both parties and upon mutual agreement.

11.4.5 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the employees involved provided the decision does not involve action by the Arbitrator which is beyond the arbitrator's jurisdiction.

11.4.6 Each party shall bear its own costs associated with the arbitration, including its attorneys' fees, and shall pay one-half of the cost of the arbitrator.

11.4.7 The arbitrator's decision shall be made in writing and shall be issued to the parties.

12 SEVERABILITY

12.1 Severability

12.1.1 Any portion of this Agreement which is held by a competent tribunal to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, or any portion which is rendered so by operation of law, shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties to this Agreement waive any provision of law which prohibits, renders void, or makes any provision of this Agreement unenforceable. If the invalidity of any portion of this Agreement shall deprive any party of the economic benefit intended to be conferred by this Agreement, the parties shall negotiate, in good-faith, to develop a structure the economic effect of which is as close as possible to the economic effect of this Agreement without regard to such invalidity.

13 DURATION OF AGREEMENT

13.1 This Agreement shall be effective September 1, 2022 and shall remain in full force and effect until the 31st day of December 2025.

13.2 Either party to this Agreement may inaugurate collective bargaining over any changes desired to be introduced into an extension term of this agreement by giving notice of the substance and instrumental language of the changes by mail to the other party within the following time frame: Union proposal to be submitted no later than August 31 of the last year of this Agreement; Employer’s proposal to be presented no later than September 15 of the last year of this Agreement. The first negotiation meeting shall be held not later than October 1 of the last year of this Agreement.
